

Try this easy way to clear your skin with Resinol Soap

Bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and warm water, working the creamy lather into the skin gently with the finger-tips. Then wash off with more Resinol Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of clear cold water to close the pores.

Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished how quickly the healing, antiseptic Resinol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, removes pimples and blackheads, and leaves the complexion clear, fresh and velvety.

If the skin is in bad condition through neglect or an unwise use of cosmetics, apply a little Resinol Ointment* and let it remain on ten minutes before the final washing with Resinol Soap.

Resinol Soap is not artificially colored, its rich brown being entirely due to the Resinol balsam it contains. Sold by all druggists and dealers in toilet goods. For free sample cake and trial of Resinol Ointment, write Dept. S-F, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

*Physicians have prescribed Resinol Ointment for over twenty years in the treatment of skin and scalp affections.

MAN EATER ESCAPES AND THE POULTRY SHOW HAS LIVELY OPENING

Famous Fowl Excited at Sight of Thousands of Fine Birds and Pigs and Cats.

Man Eater, a game cock owned by District-Attorney Ralph C. Greene of Suffolk County, L. I., escaped from his cage to-day at the opening of the combined poultry, songbird, cat and pet stock show at Grand Central Palace to-day and much confusion resulted.

The game cock, one of twenty-three owned by District-Attorney Greene, is one of the most desperate fighters in the country. His sworn enemy is Warrior, a white-hackle cock owned by Mr. Greene, who never has been defeated. Only unofficially has Man Eater ever "mixed it up" with Warrior.

To-day Man Eater made straight for Warrior's cage and a battle with bars between was begun. John Filkin of Bloomfield, N. J., made for Man Eater and the game cock turned on him. The fowl landed on Mr. Filkin's shoulder and was gouging at his neck with his spurs when an experienced one grabbed the fowl. More than 5,000 birds and animals are on exhibition at the show which opened to-day and closes Saturday evening. There are 2,750 head of poultry, 1,078 pigeons, 483 pet live stock, 322 song birds and 200 cats. In the poultry line everything is to be seen from game bantams to boudans, the most weird looking fowls in the world.

Among the prominent exhibitors are G. Howland Leavitt, Superintendent of Highways of Queens, who has buff Orpingtons; B. F. Youkum, the railroad man, who owns Twycana Farms and has white Pea Rocks, white Leghorns and a pen of Berkshire pigs; Lester Tompkins of Concord, Mass.; Henry D. Riley, President of the Philadelphia Poultry Show Association; Horace Havemeyer of Stamford, Conn.; T. A. Havemeyer of Mahwah, N. J.; D. Lincoln Orr of Orr's Mills, N. Y., and William H. Manning, President of the Saratoga County Agricultural Society.

In the section of the show devoted to pigeons there are many world beaters, including a homer owned by George W. Kittredge of Yonkers which has flown 1,000 miles from Denver to Cincinnati.

"Pa, we've simply got to have a new automobile."
"Can't afford it, my dear."
"But we've got to have it."
"Why?"
"That Mrs. Newcar snubbed me on the street yesterday, and I want a 1915 model car just to show her that she isn't so much."

SOCIALIST LAWMAKER HELD FOR BREAKING LAW

But Assemblyman-Elect Shipplacoff, Who Broke Car Window, Pleads Lots of Provocation.

Abraham L. Shipplacoff, Secretary and Treasurer of the United Hebrew Trades, and Socialist member of the Assembly from the Twenty-third District of Kings County, was arraigned before Magistrate Estabrook in the Butler Street Court, Brooklyn, to-day charged with malicious mischief in having broken the window of a St. John's Place car after the conductor refused to open the door for him.

After the conductor, Andrew Maloney, had testified that he did not see Shipplacoff until the latter began pounding on the window with his umbrella, the Assemblyman-elect went on the witness stand. He said he first tried to board the car at Livingston Street, but that the conductor grinned at him and refused to open the door. He then walked briskly to Third Avenue, beating the car there, and again the conductor grinned at him. Next he walked to Lafayette Avenue and there beat on the window with his umbrella till the glass broke. His defense was that he did not intend to break the window pane. He was held for Special Sessions in 1916.

BANK TO SELL NEWSPAPERS.

Named Receiver for Ex-Senator Smith's Publishing Plant.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 6.—The Fidelity Trust Company is now in full possession of the Newark Eagle and the Newark Evening Star, former United States Senator James Smith's two newspapers.
Vice-Chancellor Howell to-day appointed the trust company to be the permanent receiver for the Newark Advertiser Publishing Company, the corporation conducting them.
It was announced that the trust company would make report of an appraisal of the newspaper property and would also submit to the court in a few days bids received from would-be purchasers. It is understood that there are already several bidders, some of them now interested in New York City newspapers.
